

Hello everyone. My name is Derrick Shepard. I am 47 years old. I'm married to a beautiful queen (Martha Shepard) and we have three beautiful children. I lived in numerous of states due to a past profession that I will discuss later in this Autobiography.

As a kid, I was raised in the church. Was taught right from wrong. I graduated high school in 1993 and went to Georgia Institute of Technology (Georgia Tech) from 1993-1998. My major was Business Management but did not finish due to me changing my major from Architecture to Management my junior year. I recently received my bachelor's degree and master's degree in Management of Science from Indiana Wesleyan University.

I am a former NFL and Arena Football player. I played for the Miami Dolphins in 1998 and the New England Patriots in 1999. After that, I started my Arena Football career in 2000. I played Arena Football for 9 years and loved it more than the NFL. It was more of a fan friendly atmosphere where the fans are right there by the field where they can reach out and touch you. After my playing career was over, I think started coaching Arena, High School and Pee-Wee Football. I love giving back and will continue to do so until I DIE!!!!!!
