

Anthony joined the newly formed Mediation Response Unit (MRU) as a Specialist I. This innovative program was developed as an alternative for 911 non-violent calls for the Dayton community. Anthony received his BS in psychology from The Central State University. Anthony brings with him nearly a decade of experience and knowledge in dealing with mental health and worked on the ACT team (Assertive Community Treatment) working with the communities most sever clients and is certified in qualified mental health services.